DEDICATION

To the intangible

Spirit

at the heart of every

College

and the students who are the embodiment of that spirit.

Orientation

again the whirl of arrival schedules . . .

suitcases . . .

Here everything happens for the first time . . .

the upperclassmen

. . . a new friend

. . . and more good advice . . .

A party, tests, the crowded bookstore,

the Dinky's whistle at 3 A.M. . . .

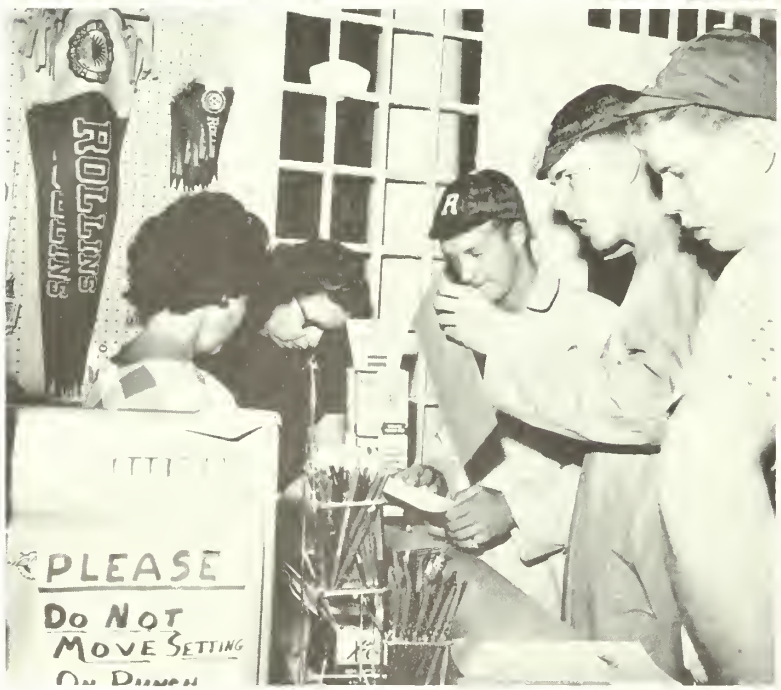

random

until the image of the impressions

tumbling one on top of another whole appears.

Indecision Excitement Anxiety Relief
Familiar emotions take on new significance.

Rush

Invitations

Welcoming Handshakes

Silence

Bids

A new world opens its doors.

A College

is many things

and after the whirl of Orientation and rush

we begin to learn for ourselves

what it really means.

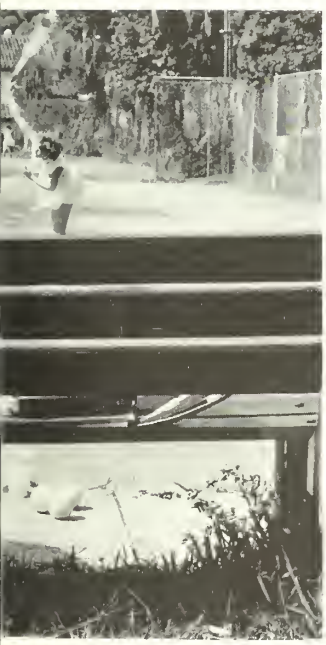

With widening horizons
comes the responsibility of choosing,

and from day to day
our lives grow fuller.

The hours in each day

gain new importance as we learn to use and waste them to our best advantage.

Soccer games,

the Beanery,

Walt's tickets

all are becoming

a part of a familiar pattern.

November 22

John F. Kennedy

— a stunned silence descends on us all.

The Chapel bells

begin to toll,

for the young son of our Republic is dead.

Then suddenly the end of the term is upon us and we prepare for . . .

the General Electric College Bowl,

final tests,

and the Candlelight Service.

The air turns cold,

but the warm, happy glow that the thought of Christmas always brings is everywhere.

the book store lines form again,

Winter term

begins and

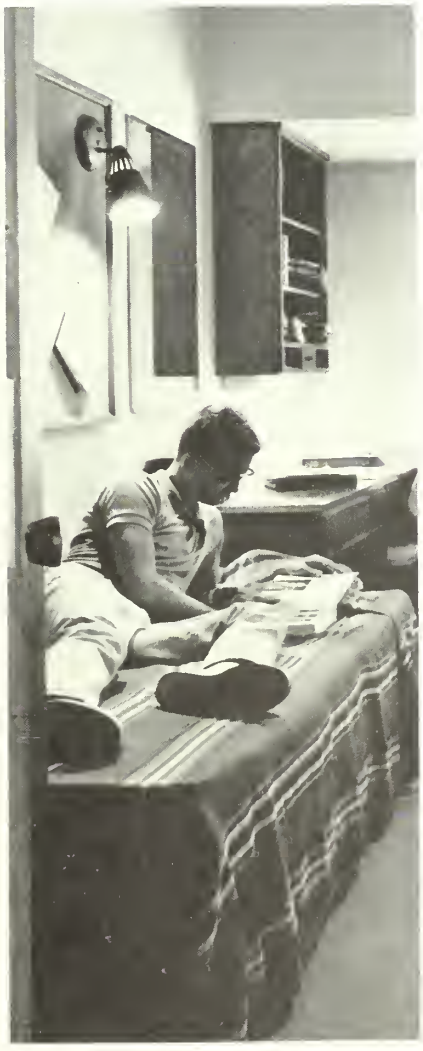

the sororities throw open houses,

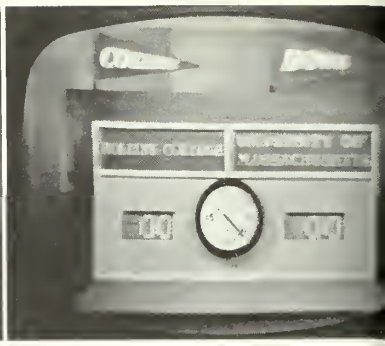

and the days settle into a calmer pace than before.

Then after weeks of preparation, excitement and suspense rise to the big moment of the

College Bowl

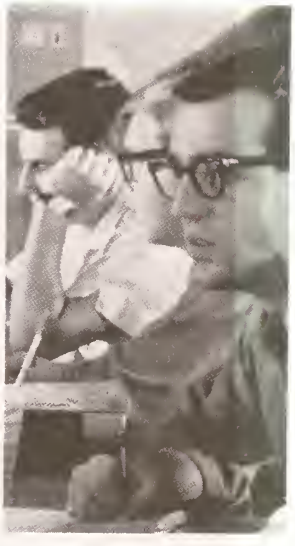

As we watched

on television sets

all across the campus

we were very proud of our Rollins team.

"Help" weeks

How would we get through the term without intramurals

and various and 'sundry injuries.

SHAKESPEAREANA

Rollins College again pays its annual tribute to Shakespeare, especially commemorating the 400th anniversary of his birth.

Founders Week

Animated Magazine 1964 Issue

Convocation

Mrs. Lopez-Mateos makes address in Spanish . . .
Honorary degrees awarded . . .
Miss Clara Adolphs receives Algernon Sidney Sullivan Medallion . . .

With the end of the term

the sun makes its presence

felt for the first time,

and who has the power to deny it?

Unfortunately along with the sunshine come

finals,

but always

wi

term papers,

and long sleepless nights,

he lure of the islands just ahead.

For a week the campus is empty and then the all-too-short vacation

almost deserted,

is over.

The Senior Course and Dr. Douglas's discussion groups are among the many to resume, with noted additions of course.

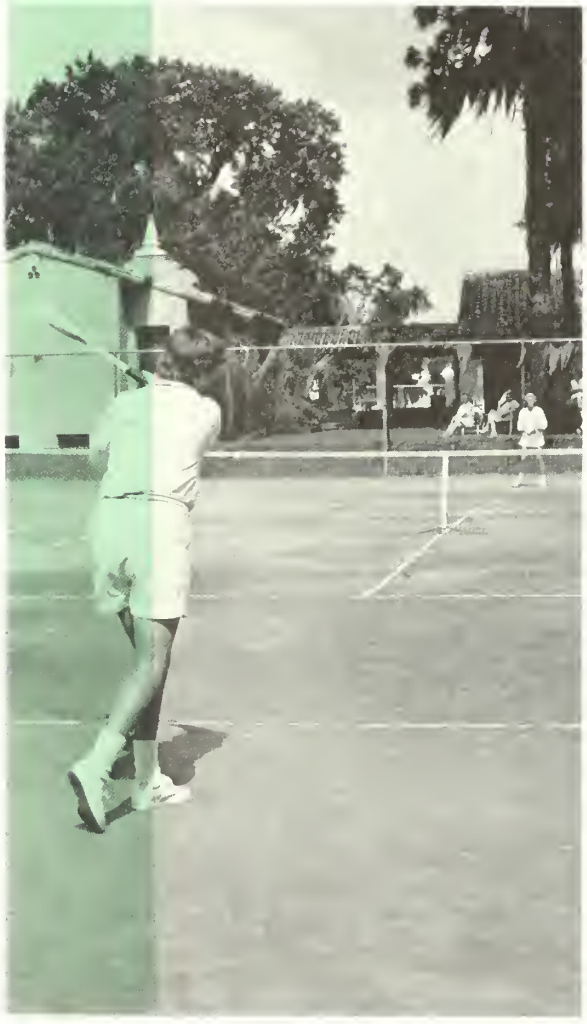

Baseball week, tennis tournaments, and crew races

add to the activities of the busy days,

and Easter weekend slips by us in the bustle of Fiesta preparation.

The first float

down Park Avenue

heralds in the official beginning of FIESTA 1964.

But, as the floats

exhibit, many hours

of work have been put in already.

Several of the bands put on a concert,

and the Midway is open for business.

From Field Day to the final "dance",

it is a hectic and interesting weekend —

especially for the Starfires.

Miss Tomokan

The image of an individual emerges as the sum total of what they are and do. In four years a person does many things and comes in contact with many people, but outstanding warmth, enthusiasm, and intelligence have always been characteristics of 1964's Miss Tomokan. German-born, Elke Brigitte Arndt has, in her four years as a U. S. citizen and Rollins coed, proven herself an asset in every way.

Sunshine — warm afternoons — weekends on the lake —

you try to settle down before Spring

fever or Senioritus

makes it impossible.

June brings graduation,

good byes, and a wonder-ment at the speed with which four years go by.

"This is not the end.

It is not even

the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning."

With colors that never fade,
And we find at the end of a perfect day
The soul of a friend we've made."

Kappa Alpha Order

Rex Beach Hall, the upper bracket development, had the top two floors flanked with Southern Gentlemen. The bottom Floor was reserved for only the elite of elite from other fraternal orders. Of course, a house council had to be set up to penalize those who persisted in throwing (firecrackers?), and yes, the Rex Beachers were once again proud to have the most lovable, understanding, and cookie-gencrous-giving housemother back with us for her second year.

Lo, I'm going to the barn (or am I???) and in my basket I'm going to put one Spanish olive plucker, un perro humilidado,' a two hundred pound whale, a broken toilet seat, four fraternity brothers with polaroid snapshots of each other (how nice), a dirty river, an editing university, a Rhode Schollar, a mirror, mirror on the wall, who's got the fattest bottle of them all, a tuxedo that was almost donned, a 300 SL-PAN-Am, a gun-toting duck-getting drop out, a killer of squirrels, a shooter of pellet guns, a one legged veteran with a belt around his arms, a boy who traded in a shoe lace for some whoppers, a 130 lb. weakling who lost 15 additional lbs. from dancing, a vigilante who desired to lose a lb. of flesh, a 1.3er, a blasphemous Saint Knick, a fruit who got lost in some plants, a what are you doing, a molester, a new Buick with a new linkage, a Louisville chum with a little linkage, a soccer player with sound hope, the sound of shoes, someone sitting in a corner, a mustached bandit with an illegal icebox, a thin and a fat roommate who dated each other, a departed nebbish, some white trash, a social hankie with Queer Anne's lace, a baleful tennis player, a poet-artist-hunter rolled into one, and Robert E. Lee.

Smile . . . you're on candid camera

Yes SUH!

Togetherness . . .

Lambda Chi Alpha

The convivial Lambdas had another most interesting year to add to their coveted diary. The 1963-64 season was note for its surprising casualty list. "Slits" English and "Sticky" George were first to hit the sidelines. Cal retired Temple, while George pursued the hallowed fields of medicine. "Rhino" forsook his warm F-85 for ever so cold Pen sylvania, while "Jaws" gave married life a robust whirl. Funny thing about "Shells" getting engaged after studyi karate. "Albert Einstein" Phillips took time out from basketball to aid physics majors in their que for higher learning. "Okinawa Al's" theme song became O, Conni, Oh! Gator's crude sweater caug fire and it took the combined efforts of the W. P. fire department to extinguish it. Jim dropped a Pen in the wishing well, reached in with his "Hands" and brought out a Lowry, while Redding continued in h utter abandonment of body control. "Father O'Toad" Halloran got much helpful advi from "Breaking Point," and picked up so many nicknames that we forgot his own identit
"Rednose" will never forget Taboo Restaurant. Gerber became a well known brand nar in foods. "T.V." logged an unprecedented 1,000 hours for the year. "T Prince" Bryce had the girls eating out of his hand, and "Hemmingwa Hanch stunned the critics with his prosaic masterpieces. "L.F.K." added queen to his Palm Beach throne. The 208 Club proved to be a classic!

WELCOME TO UNCLE LAMBIE'S KIDDIE HOUR . . . FUN AND GAMES FOR ALL!!

It's a bird . . . it's a plane . . . it's . . . WHAT!

I huff and I'll puff and I'll blow

your house down!

X CLUB

The Club began the year with a new living room and Jack "the maid" was supposed to take care of it . . . Donker once again had the cleanest room . . . Redmeat, "ain't that something, man!" . . . Dr. Zorb just mixed too many experiments . . . "Wild man" settled down and wrote letters all year . . . Chipmonk became a cement expert . . . Blade returned to the Theta house once again . . . Teddy became a little "grease monkey" . . . F. M. Weldon decided Rollins wasn't wild enough . . . S. E. Stein decided to play soccer . . . Feller found a new dad . . . Pad blew his nose too much . . . "Sow" remained as big as ever despite a year long diet . . . Pants became the Club's vegetable . . . Zeke loved to catch flies . . . Phil's favorite flower remained the Daisy . . . Jock, "what did it smell like?" . . . Sparky left his heart in Oviedo . . . Frank found Harpers and never left . . . Chas, "That's poor" . . . Temer sat beside Stauffer for a year . . . Rusty couldn't talk at times . . . Lavan played it cool all year . . . How did vegetable like those airplane rides, Staley? . . . F. A. Olson finally got his parole papers.

So went the year, Moon Over Miami became the Club's theme song—Its fun and joys, its studies and disappointments made it an exciting year for all.

Independent Men

Pinehurst Hall, that bastion of independence, is about the only building on campus where a natural born American can feel like a foreigner . . . Enrique Fajardo of Colombia, Ramsey Bisharah of Lebanon, and David Chan from Hong Kong often gang up on some unsuspecting guy from East Podunk, Maine . . . Hardly a night goes by that the foursome aren't practicing their bridge for the often delayed tournaments . . . Weickhardt has found a new use for the shower . . . Friedman and Bongos have become synonymous in the tortured ears of the captive audience . . . Over in Chase Hall, the Starfires, all but one an Indie, are probably wailing away right now . . . It isn't necessary to go there to listen, just go outside wherever you are . . . Fall term was unusually profitable for the Indies . . . The fraternities had to look way up to see the Independent scholarship average . . . Winter term brought the Indies the Soccer championship.

Intellect was big this year with Ada Marie, Barbara, and Sandy going to College Bowl . . . Taking the precaution of being saved, Judy left for Colombia with Lynn . . . Athalia minored in toxicology . . Susan took on steam heat, while Nancy had Froggie to keep her warm . . . Elsie could write a book about how not to . . . Frieda was the sweetheart of chemistry lab . . . Early to bed, early to rise never achieved plus 10 plus in Lee Ann's book . . . Astrid was at her Shrewish best . . . It was a "man's smoke" for Judy and Tanya . . . Sherri donned a fire helmet . . . Our Veep was conspicuously absent . . . Kim was coiffed by Hildegarde . . . April took on Susie's job under the incentive system . . . The tradition of disorganization continued when Lisa took over Susan's job with the able assistance of Arlene and Sara . . . Theme and Variations of "Heart and Soul" remained an enduring favorite among the Indie ensemble . . . Emily paid a quiet visit.

"I'll trample you!"

Rhinoceroses sprouted all over the Annie Russell stage, and were valiantly fended off by Cary Fuller in the lead role. Fred Chappell did a magnificent job of turning into a Rhinoceros on stage, and Linda Peterson showed versatility and charm as Daisy.

"Which is to be proved?"

"A single Rhinoceros with two horns?"

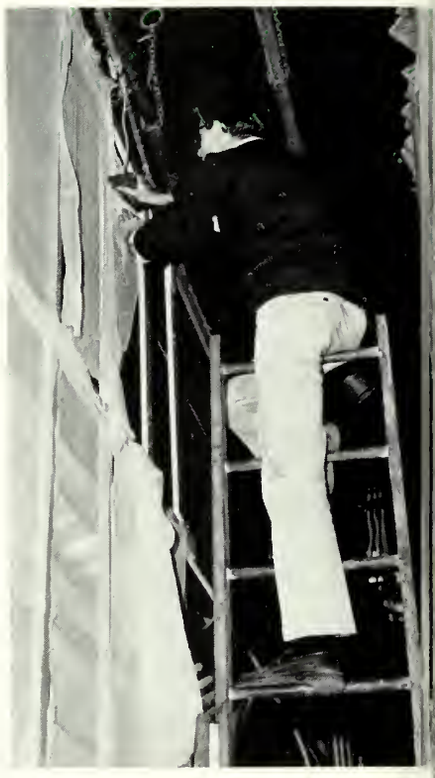

Shortly after the show closed, some very peculiar tracks were found leading from the Annie Russell toward Genius Drive and the lake there?

Soccer

Rollins ended its ninth season of intercollegiate soccer with a 4 win-4 loss record. The tally sheet for soccer over the years now reads 27 wins,. 23 losses, and 9 ties.

The enthusiasm of the incoming freshmen at the beginning of the year was encouraging. With a turnout of 20 freshmen at the first practice, the Tars can look forward to many experienced players in the next three years.

The loss of several players for the entire season due to illness and injury hurt the team in their drive for the F. I. C. crown. Undefeated Miami came in first followed by Florida Southern and Rollins.

Tennis

"Tom Terrific" Balink and

"Twinkle Toes" Cowin . . .

The 1964 tennis schedule for men consisted of 19 matches plus the Florida State University Tennis Championship at Cape Coral, Florida. This schedule was perhaps the most difficult that Rollins has ever had to face, including such giants as University of Miami, University of Florida, University of Pennsylvania, Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, and Duke University.

The Rollins squad was unique this year in that it had Tri-Captains: Robert Balink, Tom Doolittle, and Duane Ackerman. These three seniors played four years of varsity tennis for Rollins and they are terrific. Rounding out the squad were the sophomores, Pete Cowin and Dick Woltman, and the freshmen, Harry Pope, Ferd Starbuck, and Bob McCannon. Rick Strauss was the manager and Norm Copeland, of course, the coach.

Get it, Ferd!!

The girls tennis team was strengthened considerably by the addition of three promising freshmen. Susan Gerber, Cheryl Swift, and Pam Lewis combined with last year's regulars gave the team a much improved record over the previous year. The schedule included schools as F.S.U., Stetson, U. of Miami, and U. of Florida. Individual members also participated in tournaments around the state and fared well in the Florida State Open and the Florida Intercollegiates.

Golf Team

The Rollins Golf Team is off to one of its best seasons finishing the matches with an undefeated 6-0 record. Team coach and captain Bob Kirouac has developed his team into one of the best well-balanced teams in Rollins' history. In the six matches, there have been eight medalists, each of the four golfers being a medalist twice. In the Spring term, Rollins competed in the Miami Invitational, Cape Coral Open, Florida Intercollegiates, and the Southeastern Intercollegiate Tournament at Athens. At the end of the year Rollins went to the NCCA Small College Golf Championship at Springfield, Missouri.

Rollins also started a J.V. Golf team which won over Miami-Dade Jr. College. This year's Varsity Golf team was helped greatly by freshmen Joe Browning and Sam Martin. Joe and Sam were second and third point winners on the team. Todd Read was high point man winning 16½ out of a possible 18 points.

Basketball

The 1963-64 basketball season was one which benefited from a change in athletic scholarship procedure. For the first time, Rollins gave scholarships for ability and not necessarily for monetary need. The new system produced some outstanding new players who helped Rollins to improve its standing in the win column.

Unfortunately there were no seniors on the Tar squad this year, but this makes the outlook for the next season brighter because of the large numbers of returning players. With the new scholarship program and some good recruiting, Rollins' basketball will be on the rise next season.

TO AN OARSMAN

Have you sat at the line, with cold chills down your spine,
Just before a hard race had begun,
When each moment intense seems a year of suspense
While you watch for the flash of the gun?

Have you dropped with the gun, just knowing you've won,
While you grin to yourself if you can?
If you have, here's my hand, for it takes "guts" and sand;
It's a game that was built for a man.

Baseball season opened March 12 with the Tars travelling to New Orleans to take part with Tulane, Memphis State, and L.S.U. in the Crescent City Invitational Tournament.

Rollins hosted its annual Invitational Tournament from March 30-April 4 with Colby, Davidson, and Duke joining the Tars for the week of double-headers. Colby, Susquehanna, and Valparaiso were three new schools added to the 1964 Rollins baseball schedule.

Coach Joe Justice had nine lettermen returning to play in the 35 games and 2 tournaments this season.
